

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION DEGREE PATH

Our School of Education early childhood education (ECE) degree programs are designed to help you start or advance your career as you work toward your academic goals. Our programs encourage you to ladder through your credentials to continue your education and minimize your time to graduation.

CHILD DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATE (CDA) CREDENTIAL

Prepare for the full process of earning the Child Development Associate (CDA) credential, from enrollment to the Council for Professional Recognition application.

ECE CERTIFICATE

Develop and apply core skills in the field of early childhood education to earn your ECE Certificate in as little as nine months.

ECE ASSOCIATE'S DEGREE

Build on core ECE skills in a specialized area of early childhood education to earn your Associate's degree in as little as 18 months.

ECE LEADERSHIP BACHELOR'S DEGREE— ACCELERATED

Build on the foundations of early childhood education principles while developing leadership and administration skills to earn your Bachelor's degree—AcceleratED—in as little as 18 months.

To learn more about our Early Childhood Education programs, or to apply, call 407-425-2381 or email us at gail.buzard@rasmussen.edu

For information on our graduation rates, median graduate debt levels, and other student investment disclosure information, visit rasmussen.edu/SID.